“The consciousness that created the problem cannot be the consciousness that solves the problem.”
Einstein

Ask yourself:

Are you willing to have a fresh experience?

Are you willing to embrace the attitude suggested by Alcoholics Anonymous “Big Book”?

- For “... vital spiritual experiences ... phenomena ... huge emotional displacements and rearrangements ... Ideas, emotions and attitudes which were once the guiding forces of the lives of these men are suddenly cast to one side, and a completely new set of conceptions and motives begin to dominate them ... an emotional rearrangement within you.” Page 27
- “It meant I would have to throw several lifelong conceptions out of the window.” Page 42
- “We ... beg you to lay aside prejudice ...” Page 49
- “Some of us have tried to hold on to our old ideas and the result was nil until we let go absolutely.” Page 58

Can you set aside your ideas and experience – on your own power?

Some of us have found it useful to humbly request:

Please set aside everything that I think I know about myself, my brokenness, my spiritual path and You, for an open mind and a new experience of myself, my brokenness, my spiritual path and especially You!

To all who help people recover from addiction:

This brochure describes presentations, workshops, and retreats that will support your mission of:

- Reducing the rate of relapse
- Improving the probability of long-term recovery
- Enhancing the opportunity for a quality emotional and spiritual life.

Have you recently done an inventory of your organization's spirituality component regarding clients, staff, alumni, and the community? What is your answer to the questions below?

- Does the spiritual component of your treatment protocol for clients need to be stronger?
- Would your staff benefit from an in-depth review of Twelve-Step spirituality and the process of being brought to a spiritual awakening?
- Do your after-care and alumni activities need enhancement?
- Would you like to broaden your image in the professional recovery community and the various Twelve-Step Fellowships?

If your answer is YES, please contact me.

The references on the back cover will confirm the value of my work in all these areas.

Hope to hear from you soon.
