A Twelve Month Workshop using the book “Alcoholics Anonymous”

To those interested in participating in the weekly meetings for twelve months: this is a precise process of understanding and applying each of the 12 Steps to our personal lives to produce a Spiritual Awakening.

Assignment 1

Introduction

As part of the discernment concerning your participation in this work, please:

1. Obtain a new Alcoholics Anonymous book, Fourth Edition (unless your current Fourth Edition book has no writing/highlighting: then it's OK).
2. Create and pray a “Set Aside Prayer”:
 - As part of your morning prayer and meditation practice, and
 - Every time before you begin doing any part of the workshop assignments.

God, please set aside everything I think I know about myself, my brokenness, my spiritual path and You, for an open mind and a new experience with myself, my brokenness, my spiritual path and especially You.

3. Read and highlight (always highlight when reading, even if not indicated in the instructions), from the title page up through page xxiv (up to “The Doctor’s Opinion”) with these questions under consideration. Do not answer them – ASK them.
 - a. Is this Twelve Step process what I really want to do at this time in my recovery?
 - b. Why do I want to submit to this process at this time?
 - c. At this time am I willing to go to any lengths? What does this mean?
 - d. In what areas of my life am I being dishonest with myself and others?
4. After you finish the reading assignment, write out your answer to each of the consideration questions – no less than one sentence, no more than one page per question.

Please don't wait to start. The process will be more beneficial if you, prayerfully and consistently, do some work every day.

Step Three: Decision For My Relationship

1. Write out definitions for:
 - decision
 - turn
 - alignment
 - care
2. Read and highlight pages 58 to 63 in the Big Book in preparation for Step Three decision. On pages 62-63, Bill Wilson suggests five relationships: identify and write.

Pay particular attention to the relationship described and the relevance to you.

Does the concept you chose in Step Two connote a relationship? For example, Divine Architect, Healer, Teacher, Coach. etc. Make the relationship personal to you, connected to the desired attributes for a Higher Power described in the Step Two process. That is, there should probably be an element of power, of caring, and of goodness. Find the word or phrase that your heart yearns for. Choose the relationship for your prayer and your orientation during this Step process (bearing in mind that you can change it later).

3. Pay attention to the Step Three promises found in the first paragraph on page 63 beginning "When we sincerely ..."
4. Read and highlight Step Three in the Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions.

 - secrets
2. Read and highlight the balance of page 63 and page 64 in the Big Book.
3. Read and highlight Step Four from the Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions.
4. List your resentments – people, institutions, and principles. Resentment is anger felt over and over. The point is not the memory of the anger. It is about still having the feeling of the anger, disturbance and upset. This is Column 1 (see Big Book page 65).
5. Read “Guide”, pages 44-45.*
6. Read “Spiritual Awakening”, pages 87-91.*
7. Listen to recorded workshop on web: Session Fifteen.*

*Optional

ASSIGNMENTS: Twelve Step Workshop – HerbK 2018

Assignment 11

Step Four: Resentments – Column 2

Reminder: resentment is anger that is felt and re-felt. If you are still angry (annoyed, irritated), it is resentment.

1. Look at each name on your list and ask why you are angry. Look at the Big Book (BB) on page 65 for examples.

Take a new page and write down the first person you have listed in Column 1 as someone you are resentful at and number that person as number one. (This is not a priority list.) List the causes of why you are angry (see how it is done for Mr. Brown in the Big Book). If the person did something once, put down one reason; twice, put down two reasons; etc. Use a, b, c, etc. for causes. Each can be chronologically and qualitatively different. (I had A-Z for my father.) Use BB page 65 as a model, i.e., be succinct.

2. Read "Guide", pages 46-47.*
3. Read "Spiritual Awakening", pages 91-92.*
4. Listen to recorded workshop on web: Session Fifteen.*

2. Print out a supply of Step Four Resentment Worksheets – Column 3, from the workshop handouts on the web homepage: “Workshop Handouts” – “Way of Life” document: page 23.
3. Complete three worksheets by doing: 1)a; 2)a; 3)a (i.e., three different people and one resentment for each person). Pick out two or three people that are the most significant.
4. Read “Guide”, pages 48-50.*
5. Read “Spiritual Awakening”, pages 92-94.*
6. Listen to recorded workshop on web: session Sixteen.*

*Optional

ASSIGNMENTS: Twelve Step Workshop – HerbK 2018

Assignment 13

Step Four: Resentments – Removal of Deep Ones

1. Look at your list of resentments (persons) and check off your deep resentments.
2. Read and highlight material about deep resentments from pages 66 to 67 in the Big Book down to paragraph 3 starting with “Referring to our list again ...”
3. Construct a prayer of your own for the removal of, and freedom from, resentments from your heart. Use the “Prayer for Freedom of Resentments” from the WOL handout (page 24) on the website as a model.
4. Pray your prayer for each person (e.g., eight persons, eight prayers) with whom you have your deep resentments - every day. It is suggested you do this on your knees to get your full attention each morning until you know in your inner most being that the resentment has been removed. Cross this resentment off. It may take many months for the first resentment to be lifted.
5. Continue to complete the Column 3 worksheets.
6. Read “Guide”, pages 51-52.*
7. Read “Spiritual Awakening”, pages 94-97.*
8. Listen to recorded workshop on web: Sessions Seventeen through Nineteen.*

Assignment 14

Step Four: Resentments – Column 4 Worksheet

1. Read and highlight the final paragraph on resentment on page 67 of the Big Book. Review Column 4 worksheet – “Way of Life” document: page 25.
2. Complete three of the Step Four Resentment Worksheets – Column 4 from the handout on the website. Do it on the first three people you used when completing the Column 3 Worksheets. Pay attention to the definitions and comments on the worksheet. They will guide you.

Continue on with the Step Four Resentment Worksheets – Column 4. Do you perceive where you are responsible, why you are hanging on to this resentment and what you get out of playing victim? This is not about self-blame. It is about taking responsibility for your feeling of anger. It is about accepting reality as it is!

3. Look up “forgiveness” and write out the definition.
4. Read “Guide”, pages 53-55.*
5. Read “Spiritual Awakening”, pages 97-99.*
6. Listen to recorded workshop on web: Sessions Twenty through Twenty-Four.*

*Optional

ASSIGNMENTS: Twelve Step Workshop – HerbK 2017

Assignment 15

Step Four – Fear

1. Read and highlight pages 67 and 68 from the Big Book, down to "... about sex".
 - a. Fear inventory: make a list of your fears.
 - b. Do a spontaneous dump. Let it emerge without comment or filter.
 - c. Then go over your life in brackets of time, e.g: 1-5 years grammar school; primary school; each year of high school; each year thereafter.
 - d. They could be concrete, for example, lack of money or being fired. They could be psychological fears – fear of looking awkward, fear of powerful people.
 - e. Scan Resentment Worksheets – Columns 3 and 4 for fears and add to list.
2. Take one of your fears and put it on a separate piece of paper.
 - a. Ask: why do I have this fear? (For example: Fear of honesty. In Prayer, ask "why do I have this fear?" I want you to believe something about me that is not true ... Continue to ask the question ... "Why is that so?" ... "Why do I have this fear?" I want you to see what I think I am. Push it ... "Why is that so?" If I represent myself in a particular way, it will reinforce my delusional or wishful thinking ... "I am really special and unique." ... "When I look in your eyes I will see what I want to be" ... "It is a diminished sense of self confidence and I get my sense of value from who you think I am.") The point is to push it; step outside your comfort level; stretch.
 - b. ASK: Why do I have this fear? What if it came true ...? What will happen if it happens? What am I really afraid of?
 - c. Go until you get to a wall; or it becomes circular; or there is no answer or nothing more to do.
 - d. Then take your next fear. Do up to three fears - current fears you have now.
3. You may choose to try completing the fear worksheet (page 26) in the wol.doc. This is outside the scope of the Big Book but may help to have your fears reduced and replaced with the opposite. You might experiment with it and see if it is helpful. For example, honesty: to replace fear of honesty with being radically honest and embracing honesty. I would be forthright and rigorous. I would be transparent and not shade my meaning to look good. This becomes a vision statement to aspire to.
4. Read "Guide", pages 56-58.*
5. Read "Spiritual Awakening", pages 99-103.*
6. Listen to recorded workshop on web: Sessions Twenty-Five through Twenty-Seven.*

*Optional

ASSIGNMENTS: Twelve Step Workshop – HerbK 2018

Assignment 16

Step Four – Sex Inventory

1. Read and highlight from the bottom of page 68 through page 71 of the Big Book. If you haven't read Chapter Four from the Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, or not read it recently, read or re-read it.
2. As with other inventories, we make a list. This should be from a stream of consciousness. Look over the history of your sexual activities. Go back to your earliest memories. For example: played doctor, flirted, or sexual experience(s) in high school. Review each year. Some activities may be interchangeable and dealt with in a group. This is where the dynamics remain the same, for example, one night stands, or affairs with married people.
3. Complete the Sex Inventory Worksheet from the down loads from the web, page 27.
4. The answer to Question 9 "What should we have done instead?" will open you up to your core values (for example, not to be involved with married women versus previous behavior of having immediate gratification and not getting caught.)

Place each of the Question 9 answers on a separate sheet and list them one after another. What are the principles under each example (for example: friendship; honesty; consideration; fidelity). These are the ideals we must be willing to live up to. We ask God what we should do about each specific example. We earnestly pray for the right ideal.

This is a process that helps us to identify our core values and develop our sexual ideal. We each need to distinguish what is conditioned behavior, i.e., the taking on values just because they were our family's/culture's/religious tradition's/sponsor's values. We are invited to develop our own values, with an open mind, using the Set Aside Prayer. We put our sexual ideal in the context of responsibility for our own behavior. (Some examples may be consideration of partner's feelings; integrity; fidelity; respect for myself and my partner; etc.) Just a reminder: we are not the arbiter of others' sexual conduct, and the Big Book has no opinion.

5. Read "Guide", pages 50-61.*
6. Read "Spiritual Awakening", pages 103-106.*
7. Listen to recorded workshop on web: Sessions Twenty-Eight through Thirty.*

Assignment 17

Final Preparation of Step Four Inventory

Remember the purpose of this process – to identify and remove/have removed the impediments/obstacles to a relationship with that Power deep down inside us.

1. Ask yourself where/when you have experienced:
 - Guilt
 - Shame
 - Embarrassment
 - Dishonesty (stealing)
 - Irresponsibility

2. The Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions suggest we also look at violations of moral principles (values) as expressed in the Seven Capital Sins:
 - Pride
 - Greed
 - Lust
 - Gluttony
 - Envy
 - Anger
 - Sloth

3. Do you have any secrets? Is there any experience, incident, or embarrassment that has not been shared?

4. After praying the Set Aside Prayer, spend time reflecting (meditating) on each of these items and write out your thoughts, feelings and memories. Be specific.

It is especially important to be specific about any area/item that you have conscious/intuitive awareness of resistance to disclosure; any area/event/behavior about which you have current discomfort or are currently disturbed.

Err on the side of maximizing rather than minimizing. This is about “rigorous honesty” and about being transparent. This is about removing the sludge in us that blocks us from God/Power. ASK: How free do you want to be?

5. Read “Guide”, pages 62-63.*

6. Read “Spiritual Awakening”, pages 101-109.*
